JURISDICTION AND VENUE

45. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's FLSA claims pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). Venue is proper in this judicial district as the facts and events giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this judicial district. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C § 1367.

COUNT I FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT Overtime Wages

46. All allegations of the Complaint are expressly incorporated herein and Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in this Complaint as though set forth fully at length herein.

- 47. This count arises from Defendants' repeated violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §201. et. seq., and for their failure to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff for all hours worked.
- 48. For the period commencing from or about October 13, 2014, until July 30, 2016, Plaintiff Young Min Park regularly and customarily at the specific instructions and demand of Defendants actually performed work for Defendants in excess of ten (10) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week.
- 49. Plaintiff regularly worked more than 40 hours a week and was never paid the proper amount of overtime wages.
- 50. Plaintiff was directed by Defendants to work and did so work, in excess of forty (40) hours per week.
- Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §207, for all weeks during which Plaintiff worked in excess of forty (40) hours, Plaintiff was entitled to be compensated at a rate of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay.
- 52. Defendants did not compensate Plaintiff at a rate of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in individual workweeks.
- Defendants' failure and refusal to pay overtime premium at one and one-half times Plaintiff's rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week was a violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §207.
- 54. Defendants willfully violated the Fair Labor Standards Act by refusing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. A judgment in the amount of one-half times Plaintiff's regular rate for all hours which Plaintiff worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week;
- B. Liquidated damages in an amount equal to the amount of unpaid overtime compensation found due;
- C. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in filing this action; and
- D. Such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate and just.

COUNT II Violation of NYLL - Overtime Wages

- 55. All allegations of the Complaint are expressly incorporated herein and Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in this Complaint as though set forth fully at length herein.
- 56. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the matters alleged herein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.
- 57. The matters set forth in this Count arise from Defendants' violation of the overtime compensation provisions of the 12 NYCRR §142-2.2.
- Pursuant to 12 NYCRR §142-2.2, for all weeks during which Plaintiff worked in excess of forty (40) hours, Plaintiff was entitled to be compensated at one and one-half times his normal hourly rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.
- 59. Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff's overtime wages for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in individual workweeks.
- Defendants violated the NYLL overtime wage law by not compensating Plaintiff's overtime wages for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in individual workweeks.

61. Defendants willfully violated the NYLL overtime wage law by refusing to compensate Plaintiff at one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in individual workweeks.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. A judgment in the amount of unpaid overtime wages for all hours worked
- B. Pre-judgment interest pursuant to N.Y.C.P.L.R. §§ 5001, 5004;
- C. Liquidated damages pursuant to the formula set forth in 19 NYLL 662;
- D. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in filing this action; and
- E. Such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate and just.

COUNT III Spread of Hours

- 62. Under New York State law, the "spread of hours" is the number of hours from the time that an employee started working on a particular day until the time that he or she stopped working for that day. New York State law requires that an employer pay an employee one (1) extra hour of pay at the minimum wage for each day that employee works an interval of more than ten (10) hours.
- 63. Plaintiff regularly worked a "spread of hours" greater than ten (10) hours per day.
- 64. Defendants never paid Plaintiff any additional compensation for working a "spread of hours" exceeding ten (10) hours per day.
- 65. Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff any additional compensation for working a "spread of hours" exceeding ten (10) hours per day as required by the New York State labor regulations.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. A judgment in the amount of unpaid spread of hours for all number of days he worked more than ten (10) hours in a day;
- B. Pre-judgment interest pursuant to N.Y.C.P.L.R. §§ 5001, 5004;
- C. Liquidated damages pursuant to the formula set forth in 19 NYLL 662;
- D. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in filing this action; and
- E. Such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate and just.

COUNT IV Time of Hire Wage Notice Requirement

- 66. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.
- The NYLL requires employers to provide a written notice of the rate or rates of pay and the basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as a part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular payday designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; the telephone number of the employer. NYLL §195-1(a).
- 68. Defendants intentionally failed to provide notice to employees in violation of New York Labor Law §195, which requires all employers to provide written notice in the employee's primary language about the terms and conditions of employment related to the rate of pay, regular pay cycle and rate of overtime at their time of hire or their first day of employment.

- 69. Defendants not only failed to provide notice to each employee at Time of Hire but also failed to provide notice to plaintiff even after the fact.
- 70. Due to Defendants' violations of New York Labor Law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, $50 for each workday that the violation occurred or continued to occur, up to $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to New York Labor Law §198(1-b).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. An award of damages for Defendants' failure to provide wage notice at the time of hire as required under the New York Labor Law;
- B. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in filing this action; and
- C. Such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate and just.

COUNT V Pay Stub Requirement

- 71. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.
- 72. The NYLL and supporting regulations require employers to provide detailed pay stub information to employees every payday. NYLL §195-1(d).
- 73. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the New York Labor Law with respect to compensation of plaintiff and did not provide the paystub on or after Plaintiff's payday.

74. Due to Defendants' violations of New York Labor Law, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, $250 for each workday of the violation, up to $5,000 together with costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to New York Labor Law §198(1-d).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment against Defendants as follows:

A. An award of damages for Defendants' failure to provide pay stubs as required under the New York Labor Law;

B. Reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in filing this action; and

C. Such other and further relief as this Court deems appropriate and just.

JURY TRIAL
